What is re-skilling?

Re-skilling refers to the process of learning new skills needed to do an entirely different job than the one you are currently doing.

Re-skilling is offered by companies that are retrenching their workforce or to individuals who wish to retire.

AGRICULTURAL SHORT COURSES

You can select any of the following 3 courses for your re-skilling:

- Basic Beef Cattle Production
- Basic Goat Production
- Basic Pig Production
- Basic Plant Production
- Basic Poultry Production
- Basic Sheep Production

Short Courses

These courses are designed to empower you to be able to leave with the required knowledge to succeed in your new business venture.

Our 3-day agricultural short courses combine practical and theory. You will spend a day on a working farm and do theory in class.

Our highly qualified facilitators will guide you in practical demonstrations on ground preparation, planting, vaccinations, branding, and so much more. You're encouraged to get your hands dirty and try it for yourself.

ODETPD MODULES

You can select any of the following 3 courses for your re-skilling:

- Assessor (US115753)
- Design & Develop Assessment (US115755)
- Facilitator (US117871)
- Fundamentals (US263976, 115789, & 115790)
- Learner Support (US117865 & 117874)
- Moderator (US115759)

Assessor

Assessor training course will equip learners with the required knowledge and skills to assess candidates in their own particular field of expertise. The Assessor training course will help build your understanding of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) and will help you take the first step in developing your skills and acquiring a variety of qualifications within the fields of Education Training and Development Practices and Human Resource Development.

Design & Develop Assessment

This course is aimed at people who wish to design and develop assessments to facilitate consistent, credible, reliable, fair, and unbiased assessments of learning outcomes. The outcomes may be defined in a range of documents including but not limited to unit standards, exit level outcomes, assessment standards, curriculum statements and qualifications. Please note: you must have already achieved the Assessor US 115753 to do this course.

Facilitator

Training Facilitators / Trainers are mainly used in adult education and use their expertise in a subject to share knowledge and to guide a person to a higher level of competence. A Facilitator makes the process of learning easier by using outcomes-based training, which includes both theoretical and practical knowledge. A Facilitator uses a variety of tools, methods and techniques when facilitating a course.

Fundamentals

This course will enable learners to present and participate effectively in oral and written communication in various contexts. The course enables learners to recognise and effectively use textual conventions and features specific to business texts including those that require a particular format and/or specified legislated requirements. They carefully scrutinise their own and others' writing for accuracy, appropriateness and impact on different audiences and contexts. They edit and change where appropriate.

Learner Support

This course will be useful to those who provide a basic level of support and assistance to learners about their learning and assessment needs. Attendees will be able to provide basic support and assistance to learners in terms of issues such as: Learning programme content, structure, admission requirements, exit level outcomes, learning contracts, approaches to learning and assessment; Career progression options within the occupation; and typical learning or personal difficulties experienced by learners.

Moderator

Moderation is the process which ensures that assessment of the outcomes described in the NQF standards and qualifications is fair, reliable and valid. It is the responsibility of the Moderator to moderate assessment in terms of the relevant outcome statements and quality assurance requirements. This course will equip learners with the required knowledge and skills to conduct moderation of outcomes-based assessment (internal or external). Please note: you must have already achieved the Assessor US 115753 to do this course.

Price & Duration
