

Assessment Practitioner – SP220320 – NQF 5 QCTO Accredited

Course Content:

Upon completing this Occupational Skills Programme, candidates should possess the foundational understanding, knowledge, and ability to plan, conduct, and administer assessments of learner competence within an occupational context.

Course duration:

5 days in class ; 8 weeks portfolio building

Course Outline:

- Assessment principles and practices
- Planning of assessments
- Conducting assessments and gathering evidence for contextual requirements
- Quality Management System requirements
- Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and learning interventions
- Reflexive competency assessment
- Learner progress and intervention effectiveness

Articulation Options:

- Occupational certificate: Training and Development Practitioner NQF 5

Career Opportunities:

- Self-employment as an Assessment Practitioner
- Organisational Assessment Practitioner in Training for Human Resources
- Learner Supporter within an Organisational Training and Development context

Entry Requirements:

- An NQF level 4 qualification with communication

